NOTICE OF NEGATIVE INFORMATION (PRE-SHARING)

Federal law requires us to provide the following notice to customers before any “negative information” may be furnished to a nationwide consumer reporting agency. “Negative information” means information concerning delinquencies, late payments, insolvency, or any form of default. This notice does not mean that we will be reporting such information about you, only that we may report such information about customers that have not done what they are required to do under our agreement.

After providing this notice, additional negative information may be submitted without providing another notice.

* * * * *

We may report information about your account to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your account may be reflected in your credit report.

FACTSWHAT DOES COMMUNITY FIRST NATIONAL BANK DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?*Why?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number and credit card or other debt
- account balances and payment history
- credit history and checking account information

When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

How?

All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons Community First National Bank chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Reasons we can share your personal information	Does Community First National Bank share?	Can you limit this sharing?

Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Community First National Bank215 S Seth Child Road
Manhattan, Kansas 66502

What we do

How does Community First National Bank protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does Community First National Bank collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- open an account or apply for a loan
- use your credit or debit card or give us your income information
- make deposits or withdrawals from your account

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
